he Making of Good Coffee Begins in the growing. Anywhere between the plantation and the coffee pot the flavor may be changed, the quality spoiled by carelessness, inexperience, or unscrupulous methods. From the time Arbuckles' Coffee leaves the hands of the grower until it reaches the user in a sealed packet, it is handled with the same watchful care, the same thought for cleanliness, that you would give any article of food that goes on your table. That's the reason it costs the grocer a cent a pound more than its cheap imitations. The extra cent you pay for ARBUCKLES' Roasted Coffee buys much more than a cent's worth of quality and strength. A pound of Arbuckles' Coffee will give you more cupfuls of better coffee than you would get from other package coffees. Be sure you get Arbuckles' Roasted Coffee. Other package coffees are but imitations of Arbuckles'. In each pound package of Arbackias' Roasted Coffse there is a list of articles. With each package in which the List is found the purchaser has bought a definite part of some article to be selected by him or har from the List, subject only to the condition finit the signature on the package is to be cur out and returned to our Notion Lept. Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The formula is plainly printed on every bottle-hence you know just what you are taking when you take Grove's. Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called Tasteless Chill Tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's-its superiority and excellence having long been established.
